HAMBURG HIGH SCHOOL

PUBLISHED BY THE CLASS OF
NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-ONE
HAMBURG HIGH SCHOOL
HAMBURG, PA.

Foreword

1951—the year of years for our class. New, glorious paths are opening for us. Graduation from high school, entrance into college, our first big jobs—all of these lie in this great year. A few of us may find a life-long occupation—marriage. And a few of us will become an integral part of the armed forces of the world. War, destruction, savagery, intolerance, communism—all are our lot in this memorable year.

We have completed twelve long years of school life. Many are the barriers which have come up against us, but we have met them and overcome them.

Many are the barriers which we shall encounter on the long road ahead. Let us hope that we shall be able to meet them with the same effective force which we have made use of in our school years.

May our joys be many, our sorrows few and, with the grace and guidance of God, may we all do our part to bring peace and security once more to a troubled world.

Dedication

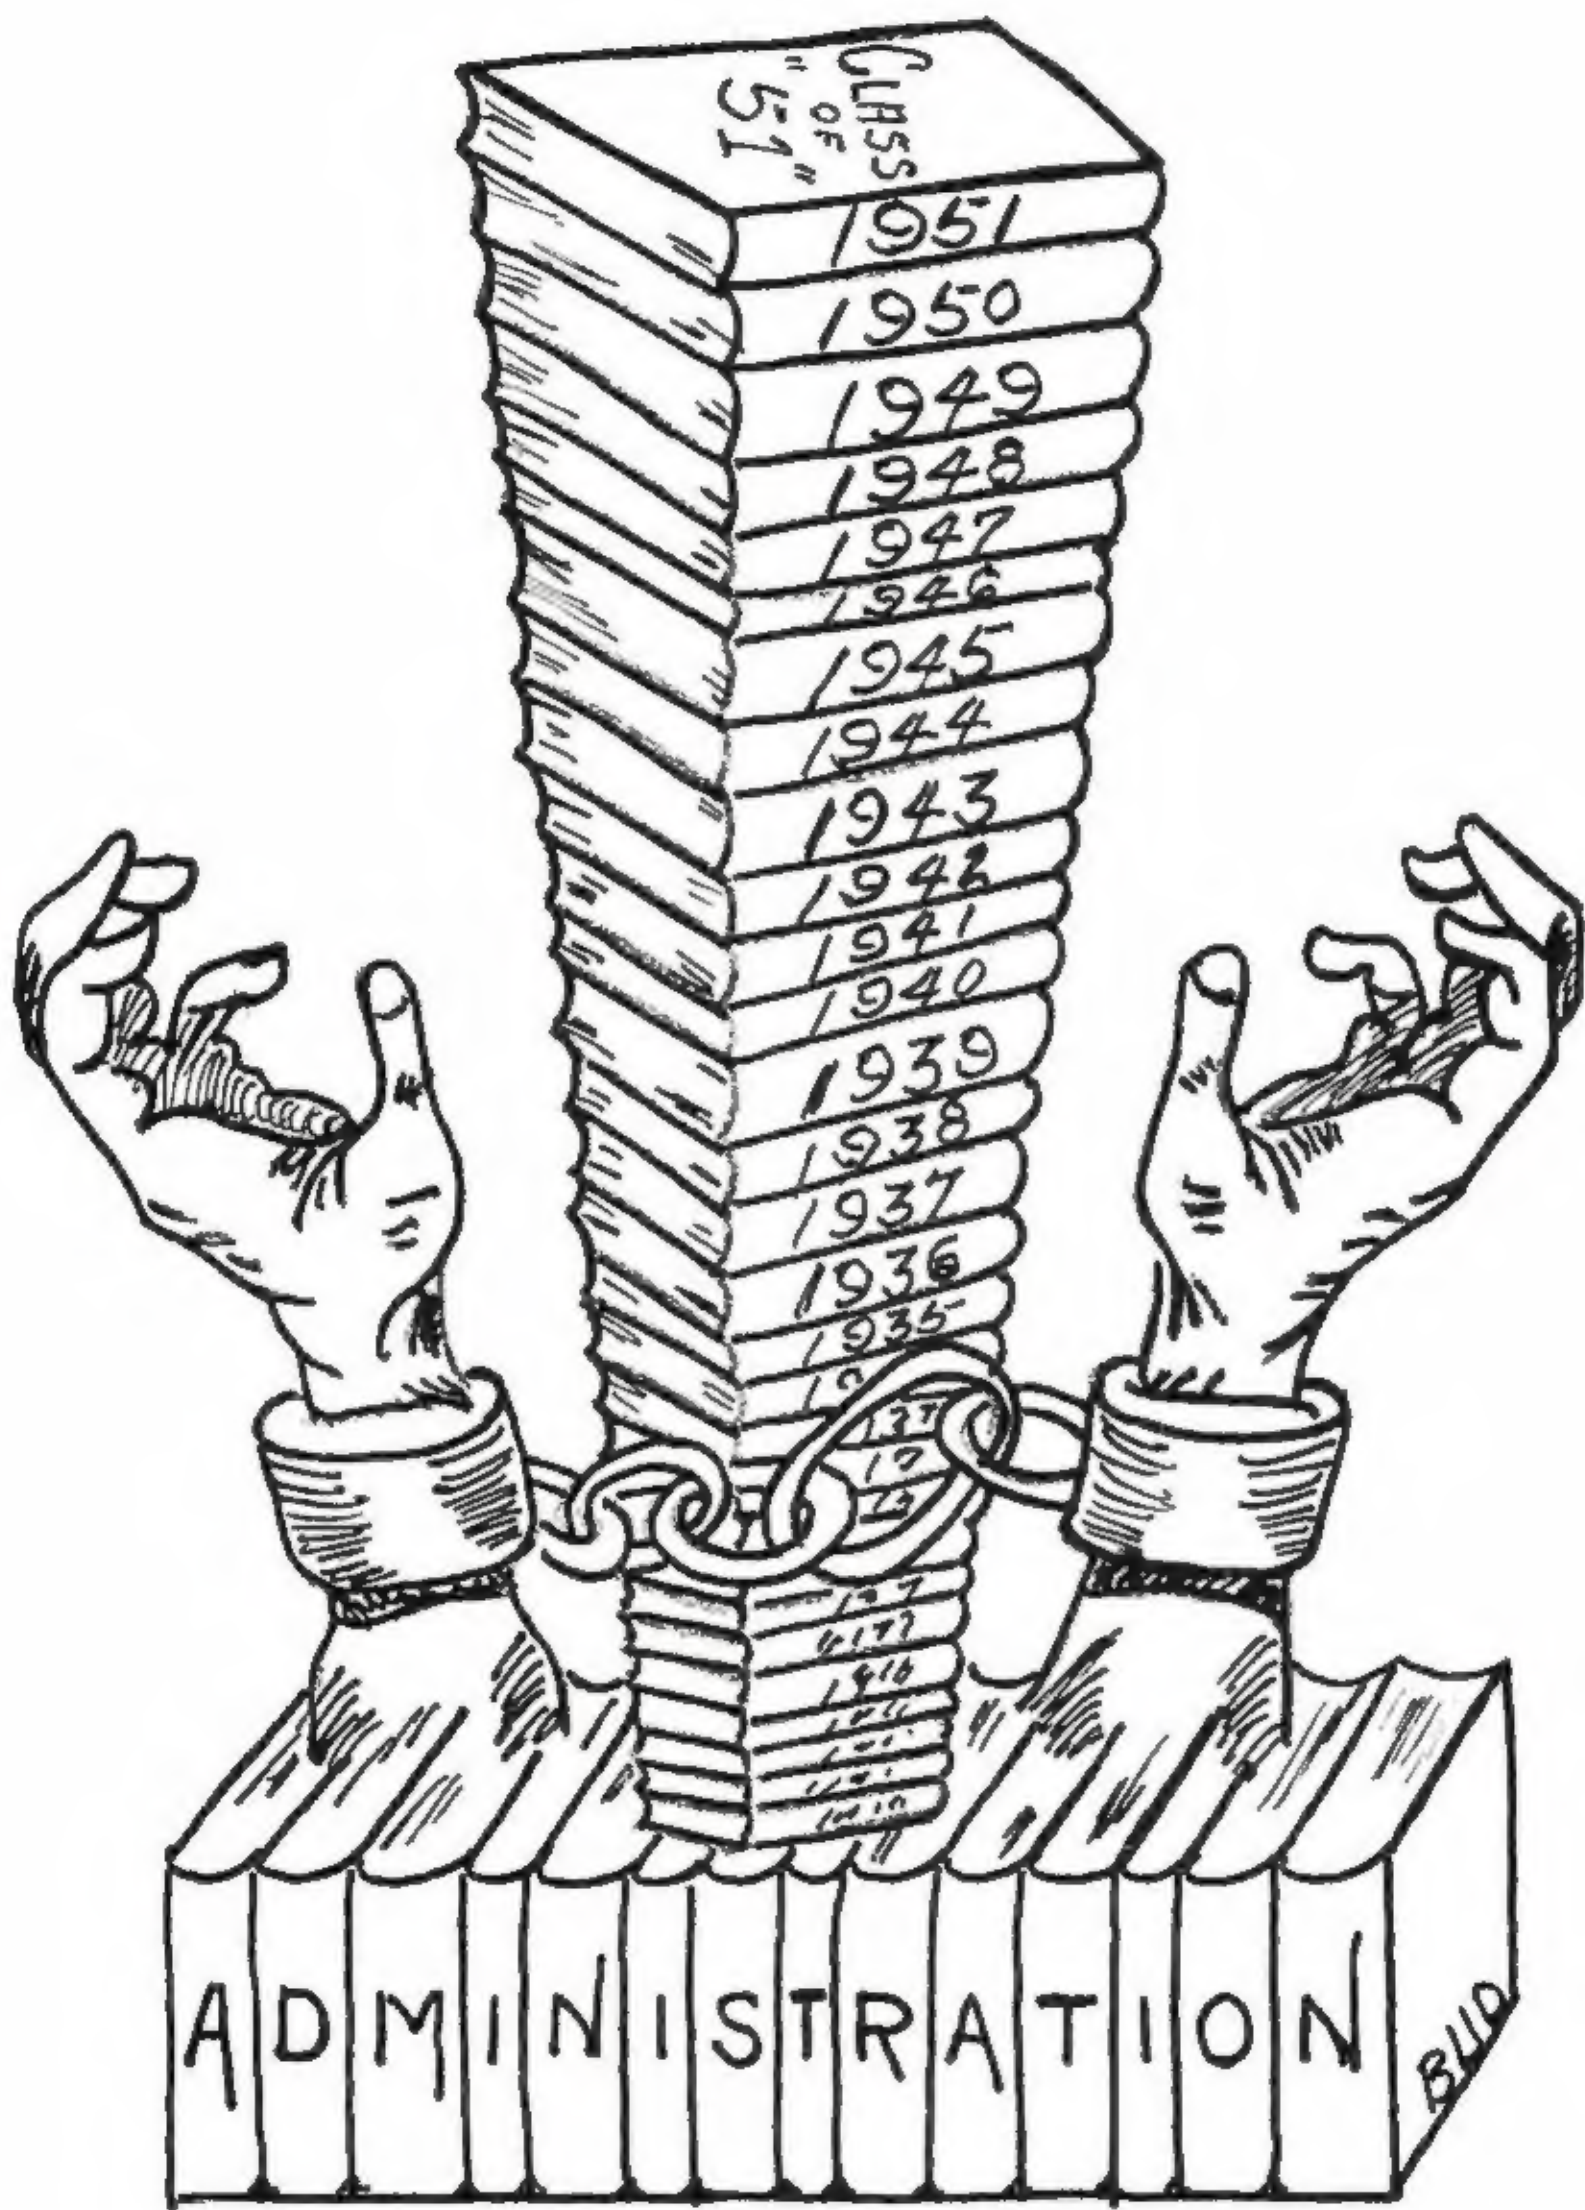

George F. Potteiger, M.D.—a noble and upright citizen of Hamburg, Pennsylvania.

After being an outstanding member of the first graduating class of H. H. S., he served in the Spanish-American war. He has given sixty-one years of his life to the medical profession, and we feel that he has reached the Pinnacle of success.

We, the class of 1951, dedicate our yearbook, "The Pinnacle," to a fine physician, and set him up as an example of what good, honest work and a Hamburg High education can do for a man.

Board of Directors

Here is the organization of the school that handles all important work. They meet once a month.

In that one meeting a month they check the supplies needed and order them. Our teachers would be very displeased without these men, because they write out the checks for their pay.

We as high school students cannot use a pencil, book, or any other supplies without giving some important consideration to the SCHOOL BOARD.

Through the continuous work of our school board during summer vacation there is always something new in store for the students who return for the next school term. Last year the auditorium was repaired, floors were revarnished, and many, many other jobs were done to make our school more beautiful.

Remember, fellow students, all this costs a tremendous amount of money, but with the interest these men take in their school and the small budget supplied by the tax payers, our expert school board always finds the things we need and the best that can be bought.

Supervising Principal

MR. CHARLES E. PRICE, Supervising Principal

The Class of 1951 will never forget this understanding counselor and friend. Being young in mind as well as in years, Mr. Price has helped us smooth out the rough edges of our high school education and has prepared us for the bumpy road ahead by giving freely of his time and knowledge. Many thanks to you, Mr. Price, and may classes for years to come benefit from your experience and sound advice.

Hamburg Elementary Faculty

Gone are the happy and carefree days of grade school. Some things have faded from the picture but many happy memories are fondly remembered. Memories of grade school are not complete without recalling our grade school teachers. The teachers in the Hamburg Elementary School have made a lasting impression on those members of our class who attended their classes.

Their understanding and guidance enabled us to pursue our various courses of study with a greater desire and keener insight.

It is with deepest gratitude that the Senior Class of 1951 expresses its thanks to these teachers for the part they played in preparing our futures.

Class Officers

Class Officers—hm-m-m! That seems too dignified for these kids. Not many people realize that the names historian, president, secretary, and treasurer are more than just titles bestowed on a selected few.

Have you thought about all the time and effort that “Kitty” put into that history of the class? “Etch” had the difficult job of bringing the class meetings to order. “Humph” took over when “Etch’s” nerves got the best of him. In between giving secretarial reports, “June” was thinking up ways to make money. “Shirley” got gray hair worrying about her unbalanced books.

You deserve a lot of credit—thanks a million for a job well done!

Do you remember the 15th and 16th of December, 1950? Remember that snow and freezing rain? What nights we had for our senior play! But the cast didn't let the weather dampen their spirits. They went right ahead and put on one of the best senior plays Hamburg has ever seen. The old school building rocked with laughter from beginning to end. The play itself will be remembered always by all who were fortunate enough to see it.

All the action takes place in the living room of Mayor Kelley's home in Hooterville. The time is early fall and the football season has everyone in a dither, especially Clementine "Butch" Kelley. She is on the boys' football team and she considers that quite an honor, although her mother, Mary Kelley, is inclined to disagree with her at times. Mayor Kelley, though, is rather proud of his daughter.

Butch plays football on Miss Pringle's lot and breaks one of her windows. Miss Pringle storms into the Kelley home and calls Clem "an undisciplined little barbarian." This gets Mayor Kelley in quite a huff and before Miss Pringle leaves she decides to support the other candidate in the coming mayor's election.

When school opens, Clem goes out for the school football team. She finally talks the coach into taking her on the team if it is all right with the boys. Clem is in solid with them so she thinks she has nothing to worry about—but she does not reckon with the powers of persuasion used by Cathy and Jane Ann, two of her school chums. They are very demure little misses and they consider it very improper for a girl to play football; they manage to persuade Hank to get the boys to vote Clem off the team—all except Tubby, who remains loyal to Clem.

Poor Tubby is elected to be the one that has to tell Clem that she isn't on the team. He waffles out of this by going to the Kelley home when Butch isn't there. Jane Ann and Cathy mess everything up by telling Butch that the boys took her off the team.

Butch hears that Hank is entering the speech contest so she enters it, too, and takes elocution lessons from Ann McNeil, a young speech teacher who is Miss Pringle's niece. Butch thinks it was all Hank's idea to take her off the team because she could kick better than he could, and so she wants to beat him in the contest.

Clem composes her speech and centers it around Susan B. Anthony. When she comes to the part where she talks about gossipy little old maids, Miss Pringle walks in and she thinks Butch is referring to her. She storms out of the auditorium but Butch is so frightened that she doesn't even see her. Butch wins the speech contest because Hank forgot his speech when he was almost through.

Miss Pringle is now more determined than ever to get Mayor Kelley out of office. She plans to deliver a speech against him at a club meeting.

In the meantime, Hank has been going out with Cathy. Clem likes Hank but will not admit it.

In geometry class one day, Hank knows how to do a problem and Butch doesn't. Hank notices that Butch is dismayed because she does not understand the problem so he offers to come over that evening and help her to do her homework. Butch turns into a young lady almost at once. She gets an end curl, uses makeup, and puts on a skirt for a change. She gets Bertha to make fudge for her. She gives everyone his orders about what to do and where to go when Hank arrives. She is showing Bertha how to open the door for Hank when, of all people, Hank walks in. Everyone scatters and Hank and Butch get busy with their homework. Butch is just making some progress with Hank when Cathy, Jane Ann, Pete, and Tubby come in. Cathy talks Hank into dancing with her and Butch is left to do her homework alone. She then finds the newspaper which tells about Miss Pringle's forthcoming speech. Abe, the Kelley's philosophical handyman, tries to cool her off but Butch refuses any consolation whatever. No sooner has she finished reading the article than Miss Pringle walks in to have a discussion with Clem's father. Clem tears into her with all she has and finally convinces her that her father is the best man that could ever be elected mayor.

Miss Pringle and Mayor Kelley go to his den to discuss their campaign plans.

Butch discovers that Hank heard everything she said to Miss Pringle and is astonished when he asks her to go to the Hi-Y banquet with him.

Hank and Butch come to their senses finally and realize that they liked each other all along but were just too proud to admit it.

The 1951 Pinnacle is presented as a record of the fellowship and accomplishments of those attending Hamburg High School.

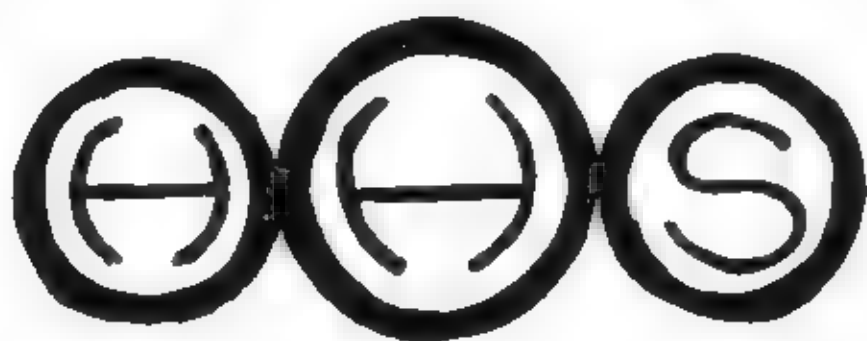

We hope our yearbook will serve to keep us in touch with our fellow classmates on our travel through life.

How well we have accomplished our task can be judged only by you, dear reader.

Class of 1953

The sophomores are really coming into the limelight as far as school activity is concerned. They are taking a part in every phase of school life.

Cheering the Varsity boys on to victory, is Joan Ely while Betty Krick, Grace Muller, Helen Balthaser, and Dorothy Williamson cheer for the Junior Varsity.

Singing under Mr. Schwarz's able direction are Anna Chiappini, Shirley Fox, Shirley Wagner, Helen Schlegel, William Stetzler, Richard Kamp, and John Gittle.

To make school ordinances Patricia Correll, 10A; Ronald Martin, 10B; and Stanley Wagner, 10C were chosen.

You can see members of this class working on HIGH LIGHTS and participating in all athletic activities.

May you always have the best of luck on the road to your graduation.

Who always takes the tickets at our basketball games, collects the fees at soccer and baseball games? Who holds meetings in assembly the second Tuesday of every month?

Every student in the senior high school is a member of the Athletic Association. It is his privilege to vote on all important issues that arise as well as to choose the officers of the association, of which the usual four come from the senior class while an assistant treasurer, who automatically assumes the role of treasurer after a year of experience, comes from the junior class.

As in all organizations, the burden of the Athletic Association's activities falls upon its officers. In addition to their duties mentioned before they must also assume the responsibility of financing all our athletic activities.

The Association is a member of the Berks County Interscholastic Athletic Association and also the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association.

The officers of this Association are guided in their executive work by a committee composed of Mr. Price, Mr. Brosious, and Mr. Baver.

The Hawks from Hamburg High, who were Berks County Soccer Champs for six years, were finally dethroned. The Hawks are now passing through a building up stage, building up for future years, and promise to be back on the top again next year.

Much credit must be given to Coach Brosious for his untiring efforts in coaching the Hawks through the soccer season.

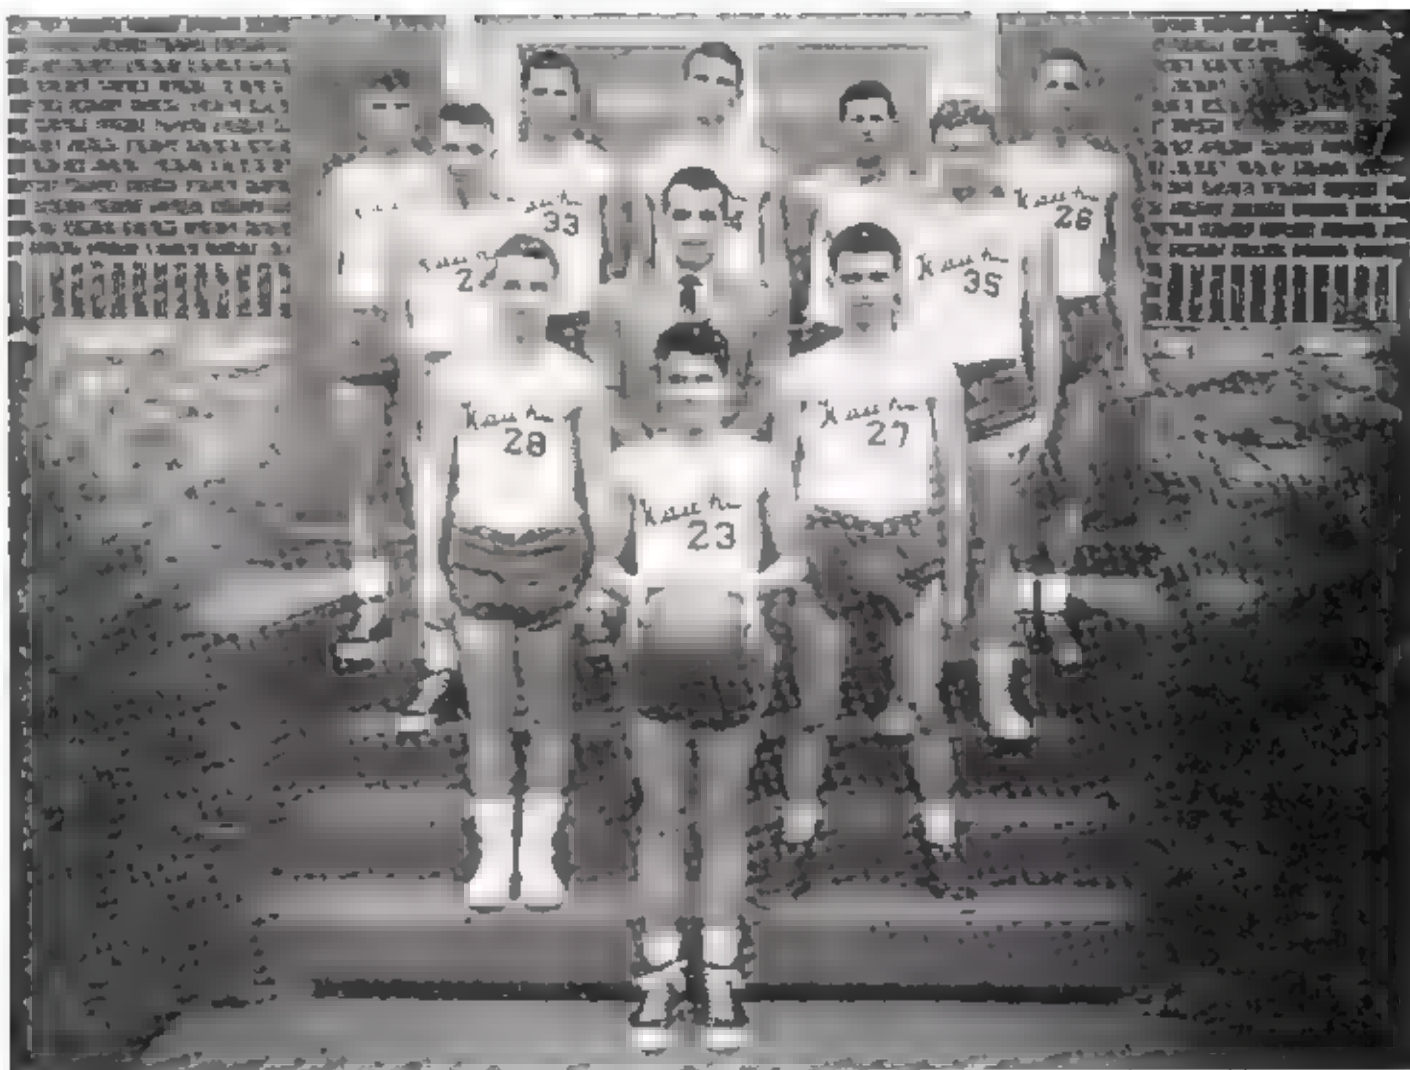

Although the Hawks were outscored 19 to 15, they scored mainly when needed. The accomplishing achievement of the "Red and Blue" was in twice defeating Kutztown, the Berks County Champs, by scores of 2 to 1 and 1 to 0.

The Hawks played 12 league games, won six, lost five, and tied one. They also played two non-league games, one against Reading and the other against Bethlehem. Bethlehem, one of the strongest soccer teams in Eastern Pennsylvania, overpowered the Hawks 3 to 1, but the Hawks tied a powerful Reading team by a score of 0 to 0 to end the season.

Members of the Soccer team who have played their last game for Hamburg High School and who deserve much credit are: Richard DeLong, Earl Hasenauer, and Gary Greth. Credit must also be given to the other boys for it takes eleven men to make a team.

Below is a record of the Hamburg High School scores:

Hamburg3	Fleetwood0	Hamburg2	Kutztown1

The Hawks opened the season by winning two out of their first three games but ended it with a 9 and 12 record. With the opening of the season Hamburg's starting team looked like this: Forwards—Richard Etchberger and Richard DeLong; Center—Gary Greth; Guards—Robert Yoder and Earl Hasenauer.

Coach Brosious' Hawks opened the season by defeating Wernersville 61-32, next lost a tough game to Perry 64-63, and then defeated Perry in a return game by a score of 69-58.

The Hawks then opened the Central Division competition, losing to Birdsboro by a score of 49-44. With the start of the new year Coach Brosious' boys lost to Shillington and then finally hit the winning mood when they turned back the "Blue and White" from Wilson by a score of 44-43. Hamburg and Kutztown were the only teams to defeat Wilson throughout the season. Richard DeLong and Gary Greth shared the spotlight for this game by dividing 32 points.

The Hawks then went on to defeat West Reading, and to lose a close game to Muhlenberg by a score of 70-67. After that the boys turned on a three game winning streak by defeating Birdsboro, Mt. Penn, and Shillington.

Probably Hamburg's most outstanding victory was in defeating Mt. Penn by an impressive score of 55-41. The Hawks entered the game as the underdogs and surprised the host team by controlling the backboards and the baskets until the final whistle.

The Hawks again went on a losing streak, losing four straight games to Wyomissing 48-39, Kutztown 73-40, Wilson 72-54, and West Reading 50-42. To close the season, they defeated the "Muhls" of Muhlenberg by a score of 53-48.

Playing the last game of their high school careers were Richard Bailey, Richard Etchberger, Richard DeLong, Earl Hasenauer, and Gary Greth.

Though the final tallies show a record of 10 losses and 6 wins in league competition, much credit must be given to the Hawks for their untiring efforts and their fighting spirit which persisted throughout the season.

Coach John Reitz's baby Hawks had a tough season this year winning only two games in twenty-one starts. Although this is not an impressive record, the boys played their best and deserve much credit.

They opened the season with a bang by defeating Wernersville and by splitting with Perry. The Spivies won only one game during league play. That victory came in defeating West Reading, on the brilliant playing of Clarence Heck and Robert DuBois.

The starting team for the baby Hawks looked like this: at the Forward spot were Heck and Moyer; Bryan Hartman mastered the pivot, while Teddy Miller and Richard Kamp brought the ball up the floor.

During the last part of the basketball season Richard Kamp and Teddy Miller were elevated to the Varsity to gain more experience.

Richard Kamp and Teddy Miller were the individual scoring stars for the Spivies, while Bryan Hartman controlled the backboards.

Although the record of the baby Hawks did not look so good on paper, they had the spirit and the will to win which will in the future pay off.

Second Row—Bruce Christman, Barry Kessler, Robert Yoder, William Fink, Bryan Hartman, Glenn Yoder. Third Row—Chester Stambaugh, Richard DeLong, Mr. Brosious, Richard Bailey, Richard Epting.

The Hawks opened the season by defeating Bernville 16-0 under the masterful pitching of Bobby Yoder. Coach Brosious' boys then went on to defeat the Reading J. V.'s, 3-1.

When league competition opened the Hawks played host to the high-hatted "Cougars" from Kutztown. Kutztown's hopes were downed when Hamburg scored 5 runs in the second inning and went on to win 9-0. The Hawks then went on to defeat Perry 3-0, Fleetwood 3-0, and Ontelaunee 5-1.

The second half of the season saw Hamburg again defeating Kutztown 4-3. After a score from the Perry boys in the first few innings of their game, the Hawks bore down and defeated them 9-5. Victories over Fleetwood and Ontelaunee ended the league games for the Hawks and brought to them the Northern Division Championship.

On May 22 the Hawks played Robesonia in the first round of the Berks County playoffs and defeated them 4-2 on the hitting of Byrd Stoudt, Stanley Henne, and Buck Holtzman.

They then entered the finals of the Berks County playoffs and lost a close 2-0 decision to Muhlenberg.

Below is a list of the Hawks' results:

Treasurer	JUNE REED

This club held its first meeting in 1881 and its membership includes all the students of the Senior high school.

The programs included reports, debates, panel discussions, plays, and musical selections. The Christmas program provided fun for everyone and Donald Miller made a fine Santa Claus.

The Literary Society also arranged Lyceum numbers for the enjoyment of the school.

Speech Club

President	KATHRYN HARTMAN
Vice President	CHARLES EMIHARDT
Secretary-Treasurer	RICHARD ETCHBERGER
Faculty Advisor	MR. EBLING

The chief activity of the Speech Club is the series of panel discussions conducted by the Berks County Debating League.

The club was responsible for student representatives on the "Berks County Junior Town Meeting of the Air."

It is hoped that this organization may serve best as a source of better speech habits and to develop the ability to think clearly.

This year Hamburg High has achieved one of its long-sought goals. Our school is proud of its band which has made numerous appearances throughout the year and has contributed a great deal to school life. The band appeared at several assembly and Literary programs as well as at the Senior Play, May Day, and most of our home basketball games. Though this organization has a long tough road ahead of it, we congratulate the members and the director for the fine progress they have made.

Instrumental Organizations

MR. MARVIN F. SCHLENKER
Instrumental Director

The other instrumental organization is our orchestra. This organization is not new to the school, but is continuing its progress and growth and making for itself a prominent place in school affairs.

Both of these organizations meet at noon in the band room and are under the direction of Mr. Schlenker—our new instrumental instructor.

To both of them the Class of '51 wishes the best of luck.

Tri-Hi-Y

President	LORRAINE DEGLER
Vice President	JOAN TRUMP
Secretary	MARY RIGHTMYER
Treasurer	MARIE PIACINE
Advisor	MISS DAVENPORT

The purpose of this organization is to develop its members in Spirit, Mind, and Body. It was organized to create, maintain, and extend throughout our school and community high standards of Christian character.

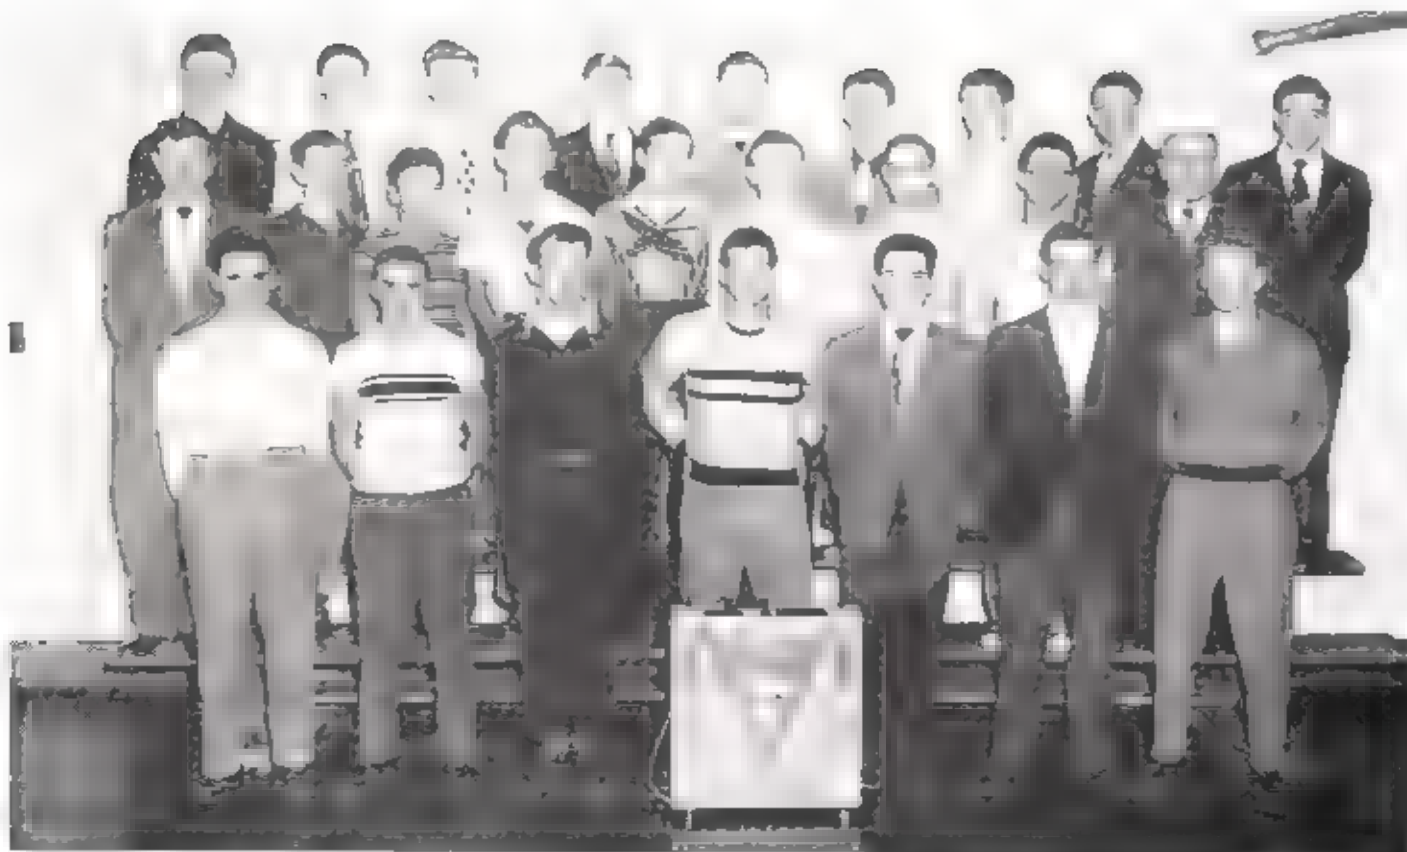

Among the activities of the Tri-Hi-Y this year were a barn dance, making scrap-books, and the showing of a movie for the General Assembly. The May Day Program is made possible by this fine organization.

Junior Tri-Hi-Y

Advisor	MISS HILL

Serving as a guiding light, the motto, "I can, you can, we all can," has helped the industrial arts girls build their club into a purposeful organization.

Their social activities included a party and a barn dance.

The red and white colors of this club have begun to make their presence felt at Hamburg High. May their presence continue being felt as evidence of their follower's helpfulness and ability.

Chess Club

President	KENNETH RESSLER
Vice President	JOHN REINHART

Our ever popular school newspaper is published every other Wednesday by the students of Hamburg High.

"Senior Spotlight," "Fog Lights," "The Principal Speaks", and "Hawk Talk" helped to keep everyone informed and entertained.

The cooperation and combined efforts of the staff have helped make our school paper a success.
